DEAR READERS!

August in Zakopane – A Month Full of Events

August in Zakopane promises to be exceptionally exciting. Residents and visitors alike can look forward to major international outdoor events as well as a wide range of cultural and recreational attractions.

From August 14 to 18, the International Fair of Regional Products will take place at Upper Rówień Krupowa. This is a perfect opportunity to sample regional delicacies from various parts of the world, enjoy concerts, watch performances by folk ensembles and take part in the Roma Day celebrations.

On August 15 and 16, Polsat Television will visit Zakopane with the programme “Halo tu Polsat”, organized in cooperation with the City of Zakopane and the Małopolska Tourist Organisation. The programme will feature meetings with guests at the morning show, live broadcasts, a family picnic, culinary demonstrations, activity zones and many other attractions.

The highlight of the summer season will be the 57th International Festival of the Highland Folklore, held from August 21 to 27 at Lower Rówień Krupowa. More than 600 artists from around the world will present the culture and traditions of their regions while competing for the Gold, Silver and Bronze Ciupaga awards. The festival programme includes a colourful parade through the town streets, a Highland Wedding, the Podhale Horse-Driving Championships and the Grand Finale Concert featuring all participating groups. Ensembles from Senegal, Portugal, Türkiye, Italy, and Bosnia and Herzegovina have already confirmed their participation.

This summer also brings new opportunities for active leisure. Every Saturday, visitors can take part in “Yoga under the Tatras”, while Wednesdays offer energetic Zumba classes at the Zakopane Education Centre. Selected summer evenings will also feature open-air dance parties at Independence Square.

Throughout the holiday season, the LOTTO Summer Cinema continues to operate. Every evening, free outdoor film screenings are shown at Independence Square, offering audiences the chance to enjoy cinema under the stars.

For those interested in history and architecture, we recommend joining the free walks organized as part of the “Free City Tours” project, during which participants can discover Zakopane's most fascinating landmarks and learn about the town's rich history.

After a day spent exploring mountain trails, it is worth staying in the heart of Zakopane and taking advantage of the town's extensive cultural and entertainment offer. Concerts, festivals, open-air events, cinema under the stars and family attractions ensure that everyone, regardless of age or interests, will find something to enjoy.

We invite you to visit Zakopane, where the beauty of the Tatras meets a unique atmosphere, vibrant culture and genuine hospitality.

Open: Monday – Saturday
(except Wednesday)
10:00 – 17:00

When the doors of the Czerwony Dwór Villa were opened in August 2018, the city of Zakopane created a new quality – a new centre of local culture. This beautiful, carefully restored villa from 1902, where such figures as Artur Rubinstein, Karol Szymanowski, Stanisław Witkiewicz, Witkacy, Helena Modrzejewska and Stefan Żeromski once stayed, played an important role in the history of Poland and Zakopane.

By inviting you here, we hope that the spirit and atmosphere of old Zakopane – called the “Polish Athens” in the interwar period – will accompany you, and that cultural, educational and promotional activities will bring new life to this place.

EXHIBITION “IN BETWEEN. STANISŁAW CUKIER. SCULPTURE”

June 8 – September 30, 2026

Curator: Dr Anna Król
FREE ENTRY

The human figure – the most important subject in his work. In the 1980s he modeled a series of anonymous, standing women, absorbed, almost staring into space. The sculptural meaning lies in gesture – characteristic and involuntary. In the early 1990s this gesture disappears, yet the figures remain. Cukier extracts tension through a subtle tilt, an almost imperceptible movement. Drawing on his own experience, the artist portrays people encountered at different moments in life. External resemblance becomes irrelevant. What remains are records capturing fleeting moments, emotions, the passing of time. The figure becomes a sign of humanity – of being in between.

June 27, 2025 – November 1, 2026

Open: Tuesday – Saturday
7:30 – 17:00

The exhibition is a story about freedom, choices and inner transformation. In the works presented, the artist explores the tension between the desire for freedom and that which holds us back – fear, habit, or our own ego.

>>> TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRE

35a Chramcówki St.

Open daily in August

9:00 – 17:00

In a modern space, located in a restored historic railway station building, a comfortable interior of the Tourist Information Centre awaits, also adapted to the needs of people with disabilities, along with professional and friendly service.

Here you can obtain free promotional leaflets, up-to-date guidebooks and maps of Zakopane and the surrounding area, information about tourist trails and cultural events, as well as suggestions for trips and attractions for the whole family.

By visiting the Tourist Information Centre, you also can see the Gazduś Gallery, where everyone can find a souvenir for themselves or their loved ones. It is a unique space full of art, handicrafts and local products that reflect the spirit of our region. Tourist Information Centre – a place with knowledge and soul.

One of the oldest galleries in Poland continues the tradition of the Polish Bazaar, established in 1911 by Count Władysław Zamoyski. From the very beginning it served as a venue for art exhibitions. Since 1912, exhibitions had been organized by the “Podhale Art” Society. Exhibition activity continued after World War II. The most renowned Polish artists presented their works here. This was also the place where Witkacy’s famous Formist Theatre operated.

In 1951, the Polish Bazaar was transformed into a branch of the Central Bureau of Art Exhibitions in Warsaw. Later, the gallery was managed successively by the BWA in Kraków and Nowy Sącz, until 2001, when the City Art Gallery was established. In 2002, the gallery was named after Count Władysław Zamoyski.

On March 1, 2016, municipal cultural institutions – the Zakopane

Promotion Office and the City Art Gallery – were merged to create the Zakopane Cultural Centre, of which the gallery became a unit. On April 1, 2026, the Władysław Count Zamoyski City Art Gallery once again became an independent cultural institution. The new director of the gallery is Dr Anna Schumacher.

Open:

Wednesday – Sunday 10:00 – 18:00

closed on Mondays and Tuesdays

The Main Building of the Tatra Museum is a valuable monument of architecture in the Zakopane style, built between 1913–1922 according to joint designs by Stanisław Witkiewicz (facade) and Franciszek Mączyński (technical design).

In the new exhibition space of the main building, a permanent historical-ethnographic and natural exhibition has been introduced.

We warmly invite you to meet the past and present of Podhale and Zakopane, and to take a walk among the nature of the Tatra Mountains.

NEW PERMANENT ETHNO- GRAPHIC HISTORICAL AND NATURAL EXHIBITION ADMISSION TICKETS

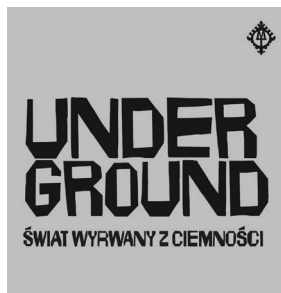

The newly opened display is already the fifth permanent exhibition organized in the main building of the Tatra Museum. This time, issues concerning the history, culture and nature of this region so beloved by Poles are presented from the perspective of an ENCOUNTER – an event that began over a century and a half ago and continues to this day.

EXHIBITION “UNDERGROUND – A WORLD EMERGING FROM DARKNESS”

May 16, 2026 – February 28, 2027

Curator: Dr Marcin Warchałowski

The “Underground” exhibition is a museum journey into the depths of the Earth. Into spaces mysterious and very different from the world we know, full of light and greenery. This environment follows different rules and is filled with strange, still little-known organisms. Beneath the surface hide mysterious bats, moles and small invertebrates. It was also in caves that prehistoric humans lived, later extracting valuable ores from underground. Today these places have also become tourist attractions.

EXHIBITION “BLACK AND WHITE MADNESS THE TATRAS, MODERNISM, PHOTOGRAPHY”

June 27 – September 27, 2026

Curator: Łukasz Gorczyca

“Black and White Madness The Tatras, Modernism, Photography” tells the story of a passionate romance between Poland’s highest mountains and modernist blackandwhite photography. The exhibition presents about 150 original photographs, postcards and photo albums created between the 1920s and the 1980s. This was a time of rapid development of winter sports and tourism in the Tatras, but also the birth and flourishing of Polish artistic photography. Its creators documented sunfilled mountain panoramas, ski descents, rocky peaks and dramatic images of the “halny” wind. For the first time in over 80 years, we will present an extensive collection of photographs from the exhibition “Tatry i Podhale”, which took place at the Tatra Museum in the summer of 1939. Among the presented artists will be the most important names of 20th century Polish and Zakopane photography, including Tadeusz Cyprjan, Krystyna Gorazdowska, Edward Hartwig, Witold Romer, Zofia Rydet, Henryk Schabenbeck, Roman Serafin, Jan Sunderland, Władysław Werner and Antoni Marian Wieczorek.

The Włodzimierz and Jerzy Kulczycki Art Gallery, located near the famous “Pod Jedlami” villa, is a brick building in manor style, built in the early 1920s by the Koziański family. After World War II, the house was purchased from the heirs by the Office of the Council of Ministers and the Koziański villa became a representative residence visited by the highest officials of the Polish People’s Republic, including Prime Minister Józef Cyrankiewicz – hence its colloquial name “Cyrankiewiczówka”. In 1981, as a result of efforts by activists of the Zakopane Solidarity movement, the city authorities handed it over to the Museum as the Gallery of Oriental Carpets, previously donated by the widow of Jerzy Kulczycki, Anna Piotrowicz-Kulczycka.

EXHIBITION “OUR CAUSE. 150 YEARS SINCE
THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE WOODCARVING SCHOOL IN ZAKOPANE”

June 20 – November 15, 2026
Curator: Prof. Katarzyna
Chrudzimska-Uhera

One hundred and fifty years have just passed since, on the initiative of social activists and enthusiasts of the Tatra Mountains, the Woodcarving School (later the School of Wood Industry) was established in Zakopane. Hardly anyone then could have imagined that it would become the beginning of an institution which, over time, turned into a synonym of the renowned Zakopane tradition in sculpture, design and architecture.

The title of the exhibition – “Our Cause” – refers to the documentary film about the school directed by Konstanty Gordon (1958) and accurately captures the phenomenon of the institution, created from the outset by people full of idealistic passion, hardworking and talented.

The exhibition presents successive stages of the school’s activity, from its 19th-century beginnings, through the interwar period of reform and prosperity, to the times of socialist reconstruction and the search for a new formula of education. We will recall the most outstanding teachers and graduates: Stryjeński, Brzega, Szczepkowski, Kenar... A separate section is devoted to design for industry – the Zakopane design of the second half of the 20th century.

The Museum of Zakopane Style at Koliba Villa presents the history and concept of the first Polish national style, based on the architecture and ornamentation of the Podhale highlanders. The figure of its creator – Stanisław Witkiewicz – is also widely presented. Attention is drawn not only to the beautiful architecture of Koliba, the first house in the Zakopane style built according to Witkiewicz’s design, but also to the rich furnishings of the villa (unique furniture, memorabilia, works of art) and the outstanding ethnographic collection of Zygmunt Gnatowski in the so-called highlander’s room.

EXHIBITION
“SCRATCHES” BY SZYMON
KLEJBOROWSKI

July 17 – December 31, 2026
Curator: Michał Kowal

The table is a special object. We sit at it for work and for meals. It is the center of social gatherings, ceremonies and celebrations. It is the most faithful witness of domestic stories.

The exhibition "Scratches" explores the history of one piece of furniture from the Koliba Villa. Its aim is not a simple reproduction of the table designed by Stanisław Barabasz, but an attempt to confront the heritage of the Zakopane style.

Within the space of the permanent exhibition, objects will be presented documenting successive stages of this process: from the study of archives and designs of the Zakopane style, through attempts to decipher its "code", to an original interpretation. "Scratches" is a story about understanding through action.

ADMISSION TICKETS

The cottage, once belonging to the highlander family of Gąsienica Sobczak, is one of the most valuable examples of vernacular architecture in Zakopane. It is located near the famous Kościeliska Street, known for its historic buildings, and forms an educational whole with another branch of the Tatra Museum – the Koliba Villa. Both sites allow visitors to follow how the concept of the Witkiewicz Zakopane style was born: from the sources of its inspiration to its concrete realizations in architecture and applied arts.

ADMISSION TICKETS

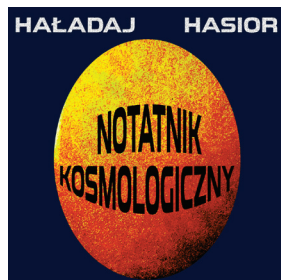

It is an author's gallery of works by Władysław Hasior, known as an original yet solitary artist – his work has long resisted easy classification. He created remarkable monuments, surreal assemblages and outdoor actions, and was also a photographer – a documentalist of the material culture of the Polish People's Republic. In a historic "sleeping room" adapted into an art gallery, Hasior gathered his most outstanding works: banners, spatial compositions and sculptures. Their material consists of various elements, ordinary objects, often scraps, which in the artist's hands gained new meanings. Accompanied by metaphorical, provocative titles, they encourage reflection on the contemporary world and art.

EXHIBITION "COSMOLOGICAL NOTEBOOK" BY TOMASZ HAŁADAJ

May 29 – September 29, 2026
Curator: Michał Kowal

In 1982, Władysław Hasior carried out a unique performance. He moved some of his banners to one of the hills near Zakopane, attached them to meteorological balloons and released them. Detached from the ground, they set off on a free journey along the horizon line.

Did Hasior bring visitors from other planets to Podhale?

In the era of declassified American UFO files, artist Tomasz Haładaj decided to look at this historical action of the Zakopane Master from the perspective of extraterrestrial experience. In his solo exhibition, the emotions accompanying the meeting of Podhale inhabitants with flying banners will be revived by eight paintings and eight sculptures – including five created especially for the exhibition during an artistic residency at the Tatra Museum.

A vivid world of colours and forms will challenge all those who believe they are ready to confront the unexpected.

ADMISSION TICKETS

In the renovated and modernized building, visitors can explore the colourful life and legendary work of the patron of this branch of the Tatra Museum, widely known as the author of “Satan from the Seventh Grade” and “Silly the Billy-Goat”. The Museum space is divided into two parts: the first is devoted to the work of Kornel Makuszyński, where – especially younger visitors – can discover it through play.

The second part is the Makuszyński family apartment, where visitors can get to know their private life and see an extensive collection of artworks and numerous period memorabilia. The Museum’s collection includes a book collection consisting of successive editions of the writer’s works, historical and literary studies devoted to his writing, as well as memoir literature. The writer’s archive contains not only Makuszyński’s manuscripts, but also a rich collection of letters from outstanding writers, painters, musicians, theatre artists, scholars and politicians, as well as abundant correspondence from readers. The archive is complemented by press clippings and a collection of photographs.

NEW SENSORY AND EDUCATIONAL MEETING SPACE AT THE KORNEŁ MAKUSZYŃSKI MUSEUM

Open during Museum opening hours

We warmly invite you to the new educational room at the Kornel Makuszyński Museum. It is a meeting place for children, youth, adults and entire families.

We invite you to take part in educational activities held here, during which we creatively explore themes related to literature and the culture of Podhale, as well as to spend free time in our meeting space, use sensory paths, blocks and educational games, exchange books, do embroidery, create bookmarks and read in the cosy, comfortable and quiet corners of the Opolanka villa.

Age: children, youth and adults
Open during Museum opening hours.

EXHIBITION “JAN KASPROWICZ. INTO THE FIRES. BIOGRAPHICAL IMPRESSIONS”

May 2 – October 10, 2026

Curator:

Dr Kinga NędzaSikonowska

The exhibition accompanies Zakopane’s celebrations of the centenary of the death of Jan Kasprowicz (August 1, 2026). Starting from the poet’s words “...from a narrow room (...) I went for years into fires, where life burns and smoulders,” the guiding motif of the exhibition is the journey – leaving a familiar place and setting out into the world – and the image illustrating this journey is the various forms of fire.

The poet’s work and archival documents are accompanied by works of artists from different periods (from 19th century paintings on glass to works by Wojciech Weiss, Witkacy and Hasior), responding with means other than poetry to similar questions that have troubled humanity in every era.

The newest branch of the Tatra Museum. During World War II, the Palace building housed the Gestapo headquarters. Prison cells were located in the basements, while interrogation rooms occupied the upper floors. The Palace Museum exhibition is divided into several thematic sections telling the story of World War II events in the Podtatrze region. Visitors can currently see the first part of the exhibition, including prison cells with original inscriptions preserved on the walls.

The Palace is not only a place of remembrance – it is also a center for research and discussion on the history of World War II in the Podtatrze region. The creation of the Palace Museum involved the tremendous work of historians, thanks to whom valuable testimonies, materials and artefacts were recovered. Conservators also made a significant contribution, their efforts allowing many original elements of the building – altered over time by numerous reconstructions – to be preserved.

The museum was established on the initiative, and during the lifetime, of Kasprówicz's last wife – Maria Kasprówiczowa from the Bunins. Three rooms contain personal memorabilia of the poet and his wife, including numerous paintings. The Władysław Jaroński Painting Gallery is also located here, created thanks to a donation from the painter's wife, Anna Jarońska (the poet's younger daughter).

A historic garden is permanently accessible at the Museum, where the mausoleum of Jan Kasprówicz is located. It is an exceptional granite Art Deco structure, designed by Karol Stryjeński and built between 1927 and 1933. The poet and his wife Maria are buried there.

We also invite you to follow the Museum on social media:
@ Harenda-Muzeum Jana Kasprówicza and visit the website www.harenda.com.pl, where you can watch films about Jan Kasprówicz and the museum of his work.

Atma villa is the only biographical museum of Karol Szymanowski in the world. In this highlander "cottage" in Zakopane, so dear to the composer, where he found his home, music can be heard on a regular basis. The main theme of the monthly concert repertoire is Szymanowski's works, presented within a broad context of European culture. At the core of this stylistically diverse programme (various genres) lies the idea so close to Szymanowski – dialogue and the meeting of tradition and modernity, datum and novum.

"AT THE PIANO" – SECOND EDITION

From March 3, 2026 until the end of 2026

Atma Villa, a place associated with the composer Karol Szymanowski – a space imbued with music and regularly filled with it – provides an excellent "background" for outstanding paintings from the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries, depicting the beautiful and graceful motif of "At the Piano".

The second edition of the exhibition presents particularly original works showing female figures engaged in musical reflection at the piano. Beginning with Stanisław Lentz's remarkable salon painting "At the Piano". A similar salon scene appears in the second painting, but in a lighter colour palette – this is Stanisław Dębicki's "Doctor Dwernicki with his wife at the piano". The female figure seated at the instrument is equally focused on the musical score and sound.

Another figure is the daughter of artist Włodzimierz Tetmajer – portrayed in the painting "Old Song". The dark interior, illuminated only by a candle attached to the piano, seems filled with music. Meanwhile, "Portrait of a Wife at the Piano" by Zbigniew Pronaszko depicts a woman standing by the instrument – elegant, dignified, yet harmoniously connected with it. The exhibition is further enriched by works of contemporary artists, including Bronisław Schlabs's "Portrait of a Famous Composer PE", referring to Krzysztof Penderecki, and the richly resonant painting by Karol Pustelnik – "Musical Composition".

Sculptor Antoni Rząsa's own gallery opened on July 21, 1976, in the house he built in Zakopane at 16a Bogdańskiego Street. Despite the artist's death in 1980, it remains open to this day. The permanent exhibition of Antoni Rząsa's works was arranged in collaboration with the distinguished artist and friend of Rząsa, Władysław Hasior. By incorporating contemporary art into its program, the gallery has become one of the most interesting venues on the cultural map of Zakopane. Art shows, meetings, concerts, and workshops are held here.

GALLERY REOPENED AFTER THE FIRE!

Open daily from 12:00 to 14:00 and from 16:00 to 19:00
FREE ENTRY

We are pleased to announce that on February 10, 2025, with the official opening of an exhibition of works by the villa's coowner, Ms Magda Kraszewska, the House of the Doctor Gallery was reopened after the fire.

In the original interiors of the villa from 1898, belonging to the family of Dr Wacław Kraszewski (1872–1931), a physician and social activist highly deserving for Zakopane, visitors can see, among others, family memorabilia and documents related to the history of four generations of the Kraszewski family, as well as temporary exhibitions of contemporary artists.

EXHIBITION "ENCOUNTER WITH IMAGE AND PLACE"

until further notice

In the space of the historic villa, works by two Zakopane artists are presented. It is a meeting of two distinct artistic worlds, engaging in dialogue at the intersection of drawing and painting, drawing from the Tatra landscape and personal experience of place.

Magdalena Kraszewska – painter, graduate of the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw, author of tapestries, polychromes and watercolours. Her works are held, among others, in the National Library and the Tatra Museum. She runs her own gallery in Zakopane.

Zofia Bolechowska – a Zakopane native, graduate of the Antoni Kenar State High School of Fine Arts in Zakopane, Nicolaus Copernicus University and the Academy of Fine Arts. She works in painting, multimedia and education. She creates in the mountains, exhibiting part of her works in the landscape.

REQUIRED FOR DISCOVERY ROOM

This is the most modern facility of its kind in the region. Inside you will find the largest model of the Tatra Mountains in Poland, a discovery room and many other attractions. An educational walk through the center takes about an hour, during which visitors certainly won't get bored. The first point of the visit is the largest model of the Tatras in Poland – accompanied by a narrated presentation. The next stage includes highly realistic dioramas – threedimensional models showing a meadow and forest, as well as the human impact on Tatra ecosystems, this time narrated by Tatra animals.

The exhibition is complemented by nature films presenting the Tatra environment from the perspective of its wild inhabitants. During the visit, you can also explore a cave, while children can enjoy the discovery room with computer games that teach map orientation, train memory, help recognize animal sounds and improve observation skills. If children feel like jumping like a chamois or running through the forest like a deer, they can do so in the discovery room – they will find games using Kinect technology.

OUTDOOR EXHIBITION “AT THE KASPROWICZ FAMILY HOME IN HARENDĄ. ON THE CENTENARY OF THE POET’S DEATH”

The exhibition was created on the 100th anniversary of Jan Kasprówicz's death and consists of 14 original panels forming a coherent narrative combining text and image. Instead of a simple biography, the viewer is offered a lyrical story that guides them through the final years of the artist's life, his fascination with the mountains and his daily life in Harenda. Selected fragments of Kasprówicz's poetry and writings, linked with visual material, create a space for reflection in the very center of the city's bustle.

It reminds both residents and visitors of the inseparable bond between the outstanding poet and the culture of Podhale, as well as of the heritage of Harenda – a place that became his refuge and a symbol of literary Zakopane. In the era of mass tourism, it restores to the city the figure of Kasprówicz not as a monumental icon, but as a living spirit of the place, whose work continues to resonate with the Tatra landscape – both natural and intellectual/artistic.

It presents a creative and biographical journey: from Kuyavian roots, through the Lviv period, to a fascination with the Tatras and mature poetry (including The Wild Rose Bush and The Book of the Poor). It also tells the story of Harenda – the purchase of the house, its role as a center of social life and anecdotes revealing the poet's human side. The theme of love appears as well: the relationship with his wife Marusia, her diary notes and her determination to establish the museum and preserve his legacy after his death.

The exhibition was created by Beata Jaśniak – photographer and graduate of the Leon Schiller National Film, Television and Theatre School in Łódź. She is also the author of the album A Story of Harenda. This place has long been an important point of reference in her work. Her personal connection to the site and her experience in combining word and image (known, among others, from the series Postcards – Women Emigrants) made it possible to create an exhibition of unique aesthetics.

MARSHAL JOZEF PILSUDSKI CITY PARK IN ZAKOPANE

EXHIBITION “WORKERS’ STRIKES AND PROTESTS 1956–1980 – THE ROAD TO SOLIDARITY” July 16 – August 31, 2026

The City of Zakopane and the Jochymówka Association invite visitors to an outdoor historical and educational exhibition entitled “A Step Towards Freedom. Workers' Strikes and Protests in June 1976”, presented as part of the project “Workers' Strikes and Protests 1956–1980 – The Road to Solidarity” in Marshal Józef Piłsudski City Park in Zakopane.

The exhibition presents the events of June 1976, one of the most important milestones on the road to the emergence of the democratic opposition movement and the later creation of the Independent Self-Governing Trade Union “Solidarity”. It is a story of the courage of ordinary people who stood up for dignity, justice and freedom.

A unique feature of the Zakopane edition of the exhibition is a special module devoted to the Podhale region. It complements the exhibition with stories of local residents who, in various ways, became involved in opposition activities and in building civil society. Thanks to this local perspective, visitors will be able to view the events of June 1976 not only in their national context, but also through the lens of the region's own history.

We warmly invite the residents of Zakopane as well as visitors to Podhale to join us in commemorating the heroes of June 1976 and discovering a story that connects nationwide events with the local heritage of our region.

In 2016, after winning a competition organized by the National Centre of Polish Song in Opole, Marta made her debut at the 53rd National Festival of Polish Song in Opole with her original composition "Wings". In the autumn of 2018, she became the winner of Polish Radio Channel Four's competition "Release an Album with Będzie Głośno". As a result, her debut original album, "Marta Zalewska", was released by the Polish Radio Music Agency. The song "No Worries" from the album became the leading single promoting the audio series "Black Spring", released by Audioteka in 2019. Marta is also a winner of the Męskie Granie Young competition, thanks to which she appeared on the 10th anniversary edition of the Męskie Granie concert tour in 2019. In September of the same year, she and her band performed at Live at Heart in Sweden, one of Scandinavia's largest music festivals. She is the composer and music producer of the audio musical "I Am Whoever You Want Me to Be”, created in cooperation between Audioteka and the Roma Theatre. Together with Krzysztof Pacan, she also composed the music for “The Last Mermaid”, a production of the Warsaw Rising Museum directed by Michał Walczak. Marta is also the composer and producer of the soundtrack to the musical film “City of Plague”, directed by Michał Walczak, as well as the music for the production “It Can’t Happen Here” at the Studio Theatre in Łódź, directed by Marcin Wierchowksi. She also runs the vlog “Forgotten Polish Songs”, where she presents valuable yet somewhat forgotten Polish music from past decades.

ZAKOPANE CULTURAL CENTRE

25TH WACLAW GEIGER INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF ORGAN AND CHAMBER MUSIC

Summer Evenings beneath the Tatras – the 25th Wacław Geiger International Festival of Organ and Chamber Music in Zakopane.

As dusk falls over the Tatras and the air fills with calm, Zakopane begins to resonate with music. The jubilee, 25th edition of the Wacław Geiger International Festival of Organ and Chamber Music invites you into a world where sound takes center stage – filling the space with magnificent compositions by the great masters.

Nine exceptional concerts, outstanding artists and remarkable venues – from sanctuaries to the garden of the Czerwony Dwór Villa – create an event not to be missed. Each concert is a world of its own: different emotions, colours and stories. What unites them is the highest artistic quality and the unique atmosphere of Zakopane. It is here, in the shadow of the Tatras, that organ and chamber music finds its most beautiful setting.

Come. Pause. Listen.
Because summer in Zakopane truly sounds exceptional.

EVENTS AT KINO MIEJSCE. ARTISTS OF ZAKOPANE. A CONVERSATION WITH ANNA SCHUMACHER

August 28, 2026, 19:00
FREE ENTRY

Artists of Zakopane at Kino Miejsce is a series of meetings with contemporary artists who live and create in the Tatra region. It is a continuation of the conversations known from the Artists of Zakopane podcast – this time with the participation of the audience. During the meetings, we will expand on the topics explored in the podcast, and the audience will have the opportunity to ask our guests about the issues that interest them most. And since we are meeting in a cinema, there will also be a film element. Before the conversation begins, you will see a short film portrait presenting the work of our guest on the screen of Kino Miejsce.

The first meeting will be devoted to Anna Schumacher – painter, graphic artist and Director of the City Art Gallery in Zakopane. We warmly invite you!

Harlem European Strongman Cup 2026

August 9, 2026

Independence Square

On August 9, 2026, Zakopane will become the European capital of strength sports. The HARLEM EUROPEAN STRONGMAN CUP will bring together leading competitors from Poland, Lithuania, Hungary and the Czech Republic, including national champions and winners of prestigious international titles. Spectators will have the opportunity to watch spectacular strongman events such as Hercules Hold, Car Push, Farmer's Walk and the Scottish Log Lift.

Among the competitors will be Robert Cyrwus – two-time Polish Strongman Champion and winner of the World Cup in Uzbekistan, as well as Łukasz Kracik, making his international debut and regarded as one of the greatest hopes of Polish strongman sport. The competition will begin at 15:00 with an official opening ceremony attended by the Mayor of Zakopane. Throughout the day, the sporting action will be accompanied by competitions and attractions for the audience.

An additional highlight will be the opportunity to meet the athletes the day before the event – on August 8 at Independence Square, where special demonstrations by participants of the Strongman European Cup will take place. This is a unique opportunity to see Europe's strongest men up close and experience the atmosphere of a major sporting celebration.

11th Run For Breath

August 30, 2026

Marshal Józef Piłsudski City Park

Registration is now open for the 11th Run for Breath. On August 30, the streets of Zakopane will once again welcome participants of the 11th Run for Breath, a charity event organized by the Polish Cystic Fibrosis Society (PTWM). The aim of the run is to support people living with cystic fibrosis and to raise public awareness of this disease.

For many years, the Run for Breath has shown that physical activity can not only bring people together but also support those who face an incurable illness every day. For people with cystic fibrosis, regular exercise and rehabilitation are important elements of comprehensive treatment, helping them maintain fitness and better physical performance for as long as possible. Income from registration packages will support assistance programmes run by the Society. These include sports rehabilitation and home physiotherapy projects, a free medical equipment loan service, support with the purchase of medications, educational activities, and psychological assistance for patients and their families. By taking part in the run, every participant contributes to improving the quality of life of people living with cystic fibrosis.

We invite both experienced runners and those just beginning their journey with physical activity. The event is open to everyone who would like to combine sport with helping others and supporting people with cystic fibrosis in their daily struggle for every breath.

Registration is available online at: bieg.ptwm.org.pl/zapisy
Subject to availability, it will also be possible to register at the race office.

Participants may run or walk the 5-kilometre route through the streets of Zakopane. Everyone who registers by August 10, 2026, will receive a commemorative T-shirt and medal. After the race, the organizers invite participants to refreshments and a family charity picnic with attractions for both children and adults. For those unable to come to Zakopane on August 30, a virtual format will also be available. Simply complete a distance of 5 kilometres anywhere by September 30, 2026, and join the campaign.

The event is held under the honorary patronage of Justyna Kowalczyk-Tekieli, the Tatra County Governor, the Mayor of Zakopane, the Vice-Rector for Collegium Medicum of the Jagiellonian University, and the Rector of the University of Applied Sciences in Nowy Targ. The event is co-organized by the Municipal Sports and Recreation Centre in Zakopane.

Cystic fibrosis is a severe genetic multi-system disease. As a result of a genetic defect, the body produces excessively thick mucus, causing dysfunction in many organs, particularly in the respiratory and digestive systems.

The disease causes the greatest damage to the lungs, gradually leading to complete respiratory failure. Until recently, lung transplantation was often the only option for extending life expectancy. Today, effective therapies are available for many patients that target the cause of the disease rather than merely alleviating its symptoms. These medications reduce the number of exacerbations, improve lung function and ultimately prolong life. Approximately 1,800 people in Poland live with cystic fibrosis.

The Polish Cystic Fibrosis Society (PTWM) is the oldest and largest organization of its kind in Poland. Since 1987, it has provided comprehensive support to patients and their families. From the beginning of its activity, it has advocated essential improvements in the healthcare system, supported the creation of new medical facilities and the modernization of existing ones, and undertaken numerous initiatives aimed at improving both the quality and length of life of people affected by cystic fibrosis.

PoSzlaki of the Tatra National Park

July–August 2026

In July and August, the Tatra National Park once again invites you to the summer PoSzlaki programme – a holiday educational initiative featuring outdoor talks, lectures, family walks, workshops and guided tours of Kuźnice.

It is an offer for families with children, individual hikers and anyone who would like to get to know the Tatras better: their nature, the rules of the Park and good practices for safe and responsible hiking.

The key element of the programme are short educational meetings in the field. Every day from 11:00 to 15:00, on the hour, TPN educators will give talks at popular locations in the Park. At points marked with flags, visitors can stop for a moment, listen to stories about Tatra nature, ask questions about the rules in force and continue their journey with greater awareness of the mountain surroundings.

TPN educators will be present at the following locations:

- Rusinowa Polana
- Czarny Staw Gąsienicowy
- Polana Kopieniec
- Nosalowa Przełęcz
- Kalatówki
- Wielka Polana Małolącka
- Czerwona Przełęcz
- Smreczyński Staw

PoSzlaki is not only about meetings in the field. On Tuesdays at 18:00, we invite you to free lectures at the TPN Nature Education Centre at 42a Chałubińskiego St. in Zakopane. The programme includes talks on, among others, Tatra animals, storms, shepherding, peat bogs, poisonous plants and autumn safety in the mountains. Participation in the lectures is free of charge.

On Mondays and Wednesdays at 9:00, family guided walks begin. This is a perfect option for those who would like to explore selected routes at a relaxed pace, accompanied by stories about Tatra nature. Tickets are required and available online; their purchase exempts participants from the obligation to buy an additional entrance ticket to the TPN.

On Thursdays at 13:00, at the TPN Nature Education Centre at the entrance to the Kościeliska Valley (Dolina Kościeliska), we invite you to glass-painting workshops “Tatra Landscapes”. Participants will learn about the history of Podhale glass painting and create their own artwork inspired by the Tatras. Tickets are required and available online.

Also on Thursdays, at 16:00, everyone interested can join a guided tour of Kuźnice in Zakopane. The walks start in front of the TPN Headquarters building in Kuźnice. Participation is free of charge.

Celebrations of the 100th anniversary of the Death of Jan Kasprowicz

July–August 2026

As part of commemorating the centenary of Jan Kasprowicz's death, a series of cultural events (exhibitions, concerts, theatre performances and several “Evenings at Harenda” devoted to literature) will take place from May to December 2026.

Jan Kasprowicz (1860–1926) was one of the most distinguished poets of the Young Poland movement, as well as a translator and professor at the University of Lviv. He spent the final years of his life in Harenda, a district of Zakopane, where he wrote, worked and met with many of the leading artists and intellectuals of his time.

Summer Workshops at “Atma Villa”

July–August 2026

Summer is a perfect time to explore the world of art, music and creative play. The National Museum in Kraków – Karol Szymanowski Museum in Zakopane has prepared a series of exceptional workshops for the youngest participants, allowing them to develop their imagination, discover various artistic techniques and experience music in a creative and engaging way.

AUGUST 13, 2026

10:00–11:30 and 12:00–13:30

MUSIC IS A MAGICIAN'S BRUSH

(the workshop is repeated at both times listed above)

Sometimes, when we hear music, shapes and colours appear before our eyes. Our senses come alive and emotions begin to emerge. Memories of happy moments return. That is exactly how music works! At times, it fills us with joy and makes us want to express it... But how? For example, with the help of a special magical wand – a paintbrush.

This enchanting power of art has inspired many outstanding artists. During the workshop, we will explore its magical ability to connect different phenomena: we will discover whether colours can be heard, how much music and painting have in common, and whether there are words that are “musical by nature”. We will transform sounds, rhythms and contrasts into a truly magical assemblage. In other words, we will compose pictures. We will use a variety of materials that we can find all around us!

Duration: approximately 90 minutes

For whom? Children and youth aged 6–14

Led by: Jagoda Gumińska-Oleksy and Ola Jaremkó

Admission: PLN 20 per participant. The number of places is limited.

Registration required:

AUGUST 27, 2026

12:00–13:30

THE WORLD PAINTED WITH WAX

What if we drew patterns on a blank sheet with a white candle? How could we reveal them afterwards?

How could we show where they are? Join our summer art workshop, during which we will work together to create colourful illustrations using the technique of wax batik on paper. During the workshop, we will learn the principles of painting with wax on paper, look at examples of works created with this technique, and then set off on our own journey into a land of inspiration to create colourful illustrations on any theme we choose.

Duration: approximately 90 minutes

For whom? Children and youth aged 6–14

Mid-Summer Wardrobe Refresh at Sokolnia!

August 1, 2026

Free clothes swap, a second life for unwanted items, and a community effort for the environment

On August 1, 2026, Sokolnia at 2a Orkana St. in Zakopane will host another event from the "Don't Throw It Away, Pass It On" series, an initiative promoting the reuse of items, waste reduction and the strengthening of the local community.

Over the past several months, events organized at Sokolnia have shown that things no longer needed by one person can successfully serve someone else. Thanks to the involvement of residents, thousands of items have been given a second life instead of ending up in landfill.

Prior to the event, a collection of items was held on July 24 and 25, 2026 at Sokolnia, 2a Orkana St., Zakopane.

The event finale, a free clothes and item giveaway open to all residents and visitors, will take place on August 1, 2026, from 12:00 to 19:00 at Sokolnia. All collected items will be available completely free of charge. No registration is required, and there is no obligation to bring items in exchange.

At the end of the event, the organizer invites everyone to a community barbecue with grilled sausages. It will be a great opportunity to meet, socialize and spend time together in a friendly neighbourhood atmosphere.

"Don't Throw It Away, Pass It On" is more than an environmental initiative. It is also an opportunity to meet people, exchange ideas and strengthen community ties. The project demonstrates that the circular economy can be successfully implemented at a local level, benefiting both the environment and residents.

Event Partners

Honorary Patron: Łukasz Filipowicz, Mayor of the City of Zakopane
Media Patron: Radio Alex and Tygodnik Podhalański
Organizational Partner: "Sokół" Gymnastic Society – Zakopane Branch

The organizer invites all residents of Podhale to take part, both those wishing to donate unwanted items and those looking for practical, eco-friendly and free solutions. Every item that finds a new owner instead of ending up in the bin is a real benefit for the environment and another step towards more responsible consumption.

EXHIBITION

IN BETWEEN. STANISŁAW CUKIER. SCULPTURE

June 8 – September 30, 2026

Curator: Dr hab. Anna Król

The human figure. The most important subject in his work. In the 1980s, he modelled a series of anonymous, standing women, absorbed in thought, almost lost in contemplation. The sculptural meaning of these representations is contained in a gesture, characteristic and involuntary. At the beginning of the 1990s, this gesture, this meaning of the figure, disappears. The sculpted figures remain. Cukier reveals tension through a slight inclination, an almost imperceptible movement. In creating, the artist draws upon his own experience, portraying people encountered at different moments of life. Their outward resemblance ceases to matter. What emerges are records capturing fleeting moments, emotions and passing time. The figure becomes a symbol of the human being and humanity itself, of existing in between.

Stanisław Cukier is a contemporary sculptor, medallist and educator, born on February 11, 1954, in Zakopane, closely associated with the tradition of the Podhale school of sculpture. From an early age he developed artistic interests, and in 1976 graduated from the Antoni Kenar State Secondary School of Fine Arts in Zakopane, after which he continued his studies at the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw, where between 1976 and 1981 he studied sculpture and received his diploma with distinction in the studio of Zofia Demkowska.

Immediately after graduating, he began his teaching career at the Academy, working in the Department of Medallistic Art and Small Sculptural Forms between 1981 and 1986, and later returned to Zakopane, with which he linked the rest of his life and artistic activity.

From 1991 he worked as a teacher at the local art school, and between 1994 and 2019 served as Director of the Antoni Kenar School of Fine Arts, exerting a significant influence on the artistic education of subsequent generations of artists.

As an artist, he works in sculpture in the round, relief and medallion art, creating mainly in bronze, stone, wood and granite, often employing the lost-wax casting technique. His work focuses on the human figure and the spiritual dimension of existence, combining figurative realism with metaphysical and religious reflection, while also addressing themes connected with everyday life and family. Since the early 1980s, he has participated in numerous solo and group exhibitions in Poland and abroad, taking part in international symposia and congresses, including those organized by medallion art circles, and his works can be found in important museum collections, including the holdings of the National Museums in Warsaw, Kraków and Wrocław, as well as the British Museum. For his artistic achievements and contribution to the development of culture, he has received numerous awards, including the Silver Medal for Merit to Culture "Gloria Artis" in 2016.

In his private life, he remains closely connected with Zakopane, where he lives and works, often drawing inspiration for his artistic practice from family life. Stanisław Cukier is regarded as one of the important representatives of contemporary Polish figurative sculpture, combining classical artistic craftsmanship with an individual, reflective approach to form and content.

EXHIBITION "PRZEKRÓJ (ENG. CROSS-SECTION)"

PAWEŁ MŁYNARCZYK

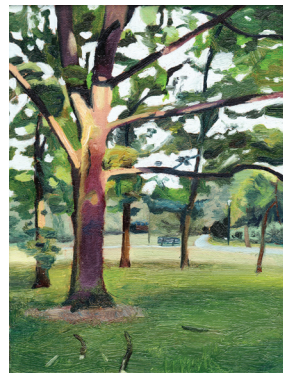

July 20 – October 16, 2026

Opening: July 17, 17:00

The architectural cross-section is a tool that allows us to see what remains invisible. The title, borrowed from the language of architecture, refers not only to the artist's profession, but also to a way of understanding reality through insight into structures, hidden relationships and processes that shape the visible form of the works presented.

The collection on display was created over a period of years, forming not only a retrospective, but also revealing successive layers of sensitivity. Themes related to growing up, shaping one's identity, and seeking one's own place in the world emerge throughout. The works present observations of the external world in the form of landscapes and still lifes, as well as the evolution of form. The individual paintings do not create a closed narrative; rather, they function as fragments of a larger whole, traces of successive stages of seeing, feeling and understanding.

Paweł Młynarczyk (born 1999 in Zakopane) – graduate of the Antoni Kenar Secondary School of Fine Arts in Zakopane (2019) and of the Faculty of Architecture at Kraków University of Technology (2026). He works primarily in oil painting. In his art, he explores themes connected with the experience of growing up, the formation of identity, and attempts to understand one's place within the surrounding reality. He employs traditional techniques while simultaneously making use of contemporary technology through experimentation with form.

EXHIBITION "ILLUSION OF FREEDOM. PAULINA MARTYNIAK"

June 27, 2025 – November 1, 2026
The exhibition is open from Tuesday to Saturday, 7:30–17:00

Paulina Martyniak

Paulina Martyniak (born 1992) – a Polish painter working primarily in acrylics. Her artistic practice focuses on emotions, the human condition and the tension between freedom and inner confinement. Her works oscillate between realism and symbolism, where the human figure becomes a vehicle for psychological states and existential experiences. Characteristic features of her painting include strong emotional contrasts, conscious use of colour and a sense of ambiguity that leaves space for the viewer's individual interpretation. The artist creates coherent thematic series, building narratives based on transience, choices and the process of inner transformation. Her works have been presented in solo exhibitions, representing successive stages in the development of her original artistic cycle.

The exhibition is a story about freedom. About a moment suspended between decision and stillness, between leaving and staying. The figures appearing in the presented paintings are not unambiguous. Some are trying to escape, others have long since stopped. The boundary between these states is thin. Sometimes almost invisible. It is a space of silence – the kind in which the most happens.

Art House Cinema – Kino Miejsce

2 Orkana St.

An Old Place. New Energy.

Thanks to a partnership with the “Sokół” Gymnastic Society – Zakopane Branch, it has once again become possible to develop cultural and community activities in a place that has long been an important part of the town’s cultural landscape.

This cooperation is built on a shared commitment to culture, education and community engagement, providing a solid foundation for the further development of Kino Miejsce as a space for meetings, dialogue and creative initiatives.

Kino Miejsce is entering a new chapter in its history. The Zakopane Cultural Centre has taken over its management, bringing new energy, fresh ideas and new opportunities for gatherings in a venue that has been an important point on Zakopane’s cultural map for many years.

We want Kino Miejsce to be open both to residents and to visitors to our town. It will continue to be a place for ambitious cinema, while at the same time expanding its role as a space for dialogue, inspiration and artistic activity.

Our plans include not only film screenings, but also meetings with artists and filmmakers, cultural events, discussions, workshops and projects that bring together different fields of art. We want Kino Miejsce to become a vibrant cultural center where residents, artists and audiences can meet and exchange ideas.

We will promote and support initiatives rooted in Zakopane’s traditions and local creativity, while also presenting some of the most inspiring developments in Polish and international art. Our goal is to create a welcoming, inspiring and people-oriented place where culture is accessible, diverse and present in everyday life.

"Poetry Is Everything..." is the second edition of an exhibition featuring works by artists of the Jan Matejko Academy of Fine Arts in Kraków, organized to mark the centenary of the death of Jan Kasprówic. The exhibition brings together a variety of forms of visual expression. Its authors include students, graduates, and members of the Academy's teaching staff. Some of the works were created especially for this exhibition at the City Art Gallery.

"The opening phrase of the exhibition title, conceived as a formula initiating a dialogue between the visual arts and literature, comes from a note by Kasprówic, written in a kind of 'guestbook' on the decorative canvas of the Paon café in Kraków. Poetry, deriving from the Greek poiesis, means an 'act of creation'. At the same time, poetry as a synonym for lyricism refers to works whose domain lies in inner experience. [...] The exhibited works attempt to ask whether the literary message of Jan Kasprówic remains relevant today. It is a kind of contemporary reinterpretation of an archaic language, in this case the vocabulary and imagery of the Young Poland movement. For the Kraków artists, the subject may have been the writer's remarkable biography, not only the fact that, as the son of a peasant family, he rose through great effort to achieve recognition and high positions. [...]

The exhibition has been divided into four themes: Home and Homelessness, The Weeping Soul, God and Nature, and Mother. From the Cottage. In the introductory section, homelessness and the search for a place to live serve as the guiding motif. Images of emigrants, bird nests and animal shelters evoke both exclusion and the symbolic connection between home and creative activity. [...] The following sections refer to experiences from the poet's life. In almost all Kasprówic's works, there are reminiscences of the people, places and events of his 'fragment of homeland' in Kuyavia, where, with the help of his mother, who first read aloud to him, he developed a deep reverence for books. He grew up closely connected with nature and folk song, which shaped

Bartłomiej Bałut, Wschód na Kozim, akwarela na papierze

him into a 'metaphysical poet'. [...] The central part of the exhibition, presented on the main wall opposite the entrance, is devoted to love and absolute harmony, free from any hierarchy of the world. Hence the idea of directing our gaze towards the heavens, responding to the words of the Lord's Prayer ('Our Father, who art in heaven...') from a perspective that celebrates the world and, above all, nature. Kasprówic saw human greatness in freedom. Writing and reading offer us that wonderful freedom to awaken our thoughts and imagination."

International Festival of the Highland Folklore in Zakopane 2026

August 21–27, 2026

Lower Rówień Krupowa

Some events, with the passing of time, become not only part of the cultural calendar but also symbols of a place, its identity and values. Without doubt, the International Festival of the Highland Folklore in Zakopane is one such event. It is the most important folklore celebration in the region, one of the most prestigious festivals of its kind in Poland and Europe, and a world-renowned cultural landmark of Zakopane.

This year's edition will take place from August 21–27, 2026, under the theme: "The World of Highland Beliefs – Between the Sacred and Magic." This theme will serve as the central focus of the Festival, from the academic seminar, where researchers, ethnographers, folklorists and enthusiasts of traditional culture will explore the spiritual heritage of mountain communities, to a rich programme of workshops inspired by folk beliefs, symbolism and ritual traditions. It will be an opportunity to discover the meanings of ancient customs, ceremonies and practices that, despite the passage of time, remain alive in collective memory and local culture. The organizers are preparing numerous meetings, workshops and educational activities that will allow participants not only to learn about the heritage of past generations, but also to experience it in an engaging and inspiring way.

The Festival will also feature the events that have formed its heart for decades. Audiences will be able to attend competitive performances by folklore ensembles from Poland and around the world, admire presentations of mountain cultures representing different continents, and cheer on participants in the International Competition of Folk Ensembles, Instrumentalists and Singers. This is a unique opportunity to hear authentic traditional music, see remarkable costumes and discover the rich customs preserved within mountain communities. The programme will be enriched by performances from acclaimed artists, including Roby Lakatos and Štefan Štec, both celebrated for their exceptional ability to combine tradition with contemporary interpretations of folk music. The Festival will also include National Days, presenting the culture of guest countries, a folk art fair, traditional craft demonstrations, activities for children and families, and numerous outdoor events filling the town with music, singing and dance.

This is an event not to be missed: the most important celebration of folklore in the region, one of Poland's most treasured cultural events, and a truly unique festival on the international stage. Once again, Zakopane will become a place where tradition lives, inspires and brings people together across borders.
